Customer Approval

You authorize Bank of America, N.A. ("Bank of America") to transfer your funds as set forth in the instructions herein (including debiting your account if applicable), and agree that such transfer of funds is subject to this Funds Transfer Agreement (see disclosure pages of this form) and applicable fees. If this is a foreign currency wire transfer, you accept the currency exchange rate provided by Bank of America at the time the wire is sent. Exchange rates are determined by Bank of America in our sole discretion. You may be able to get a better exchange rate if you handle this transaction online instead of in the financial center. Please see the Funds Transfer Agreement for further information regarding our exchange rates. For Consumer international wires: If you send U.S. Dollars to a non-USD account, your payment may be converted into local currency by an intermediary bank or the receiving bank (and we may receive compensation in connection with any such conversion). We are not responsible for the exchange rate applied by any intermediary bank or the receiving bank. For Small Business international wires: If you send U.S. Dollars to a non-USD account, your payment will be converted to local currency by any bank or service provider involved in processing the transaction. If Bank of America converts the currency, we will include a mark-up or fee on such currency conversion and may profit in connection with any such currency conversion. Additionally, so that we may provide required disclosures, you must remain in the financial center until we provide you the Remittance Transfer Receipt (RTR). If you leave prior to receiving the RTR, we will cancel the international remittance transfer.
